Public Invited to Comment on Proposed Changes to Vermont's Use of Public Waters Rules and Wakesports Regulations

Montpelier, Vt. – The Vermont Agency of Natural Resources (ANR) is seeking public input on proposed changes to Vermont's Use of Public Waters Rules. ANR will host two hybrid public meetings on January 27 and February 4. The public is welcome to provide feedback during these meetings or through written comments.

“The Use of Public Waters Rules protects the uses and natural resource values of all public waters for this and future generations,” said Department of Environmental Conservation Commissioner Misty Sinsigalli. “The proposed changes clarify new wakesports regulations and update language on topics such as petition review. We invite members of the public to share their comments on these proposed changes.”

In 2024, Vermont adopted new wakesports regulations that limit wakesports with a wakeboat to the wakesports zones of inland lakes. There are 30 inland lakes where wakesports can occur within a specific wakesports zone.

The proposed changes to the Use of Public Water Rules and wakesports regulations:

- Update the language on how to delegate to municipalities, review and submit petitions, and inspect and decontaminate (or clean) watercraft,
- Increase safety offsets between wakesports and other recreational users,
- Revise the wakesports zone definition, and
- Require hot water decontamination for wakeboats moving between water bodies.

The public can submit written comments through an online form, or attend a public meeting in-person or online:
